Real Order Testimonials

Working with Real Order on a move from Atlanta to Austin was nothing short of wonderful. As a business owner, I have worked with many organizers and move managers across the country, but few have matched the level of professionalism and meticulousness as their company did. Not only was I happy with their high level of service and attention to detail, but the client and her family thoroughly enjoyed working with them as well. I highly recommend Terri and Jimmy Stephens of Real Order for all your organizing and moving needs!

Real Order was the key to success in helping our uncle sell his long-time home and move into a retirement community. Shortly after his move, he suffered a medical crisis and had to move again a few months later. From our very first phone call, they were eager to help and had many great suggestions on how to get things done quickly. Their confidence and attention to detail significantly reduced our stress and anxiety. We know from personal experience that they genuinely care about people and go the extra mile. We will always be grateful to Terri and Jimmy for their help and we consider them friends.

I've hired Real Order for two separate moves and can't imagine doing it without them! They packed everything very carefully, supervised the movers, then unpacked and organized my new home. Everything was set up in no time so it looked like I'd lived there for years. I gave them a lot of free range and was able to work during the move, but if you want to be more involved that's fine too. They are lifesavers and great to work with - thorough, efficient and kind. It felt like good friends were taking extra good care of me and I recommend them unconditionally.

Inspiring Interiors Testimonials

Cathy recently staged a listing for me and in less than a week there were three offers ... two were $20,000 over asking price with a great back up offer! She is ready to walk the house and list things that need to be done or she is pulling off her shoes and staging right then and there. Cathy is a real pro – as a realtor, having her in my pocket of vendors has elevated my relationship with my clients and provides tremendous value. We are a TEAM working to get the most money possible when selling homes.

~ Susan Esback, Realtor, Keller Williams-Perimeter, Atlanta, GA

There are NO WORDS to express how much I appreciate Cathy. She initially staged our home, which ended up with five offers! I then brought her in to help me with “finish” selections for my new home. I appreciate the level of focus she brought to my design center experience. We absolutely love her and plan to hire her again once we select furnishings and accessories.

~ Holly Bruckhalter, Powder Springs, GA

Although I thought I knew what staging would involve, I quickly realized that Cathy was able to see our home and belongings (even the beleaguered ones) through a different lens. With her creative eye, she guided us in opening up spaces by moving furniture, art and books. Cathy recommended buying some new items that made our rooms “pop” – it was all affordable and transferable to our new home. I would recommend Cathy to anyone selling a home or just looking for a fresh, new look.
